Neal, Gerber & Eisenberg LLP Recognized as a 2009 Best Law Firm for Women by Working Mother and Flex-Time Lawyers

CHICAGO (August 11, 2009) – Neal, Gerber & Eisenberg LLP has been named a 2009 Working Mother & Flex-Time Lawyers Best Law Firm for Women. Working Mother magazine, the authoritative source for career mothers, and Flex-Time Lawyers LLC, a national consulting firm advising attorneys and legal employers on work/life balance, partnered in 2009 to recognize 50 law firms that have redefined standards of success by creating a workplace that encourages the retention and advancement of women.

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is to be profiled in the August/September 2009 issue of Working Mother and honored at a special recognition gala luncheon in New York on September 15.

“Neal Gerber Eisenberg is honored to be recognized as a 2009 Working Mother & Flex-Time Lawyers Best Law Firm for Women for the second year in a row,” said Emily Mulder Milman, a partner in Neal Gerber Eisenberg’s Litigation Practice Group and co-chair of the firm’s Women’s Network. “This recognition is an affirmation of our ongoing initiatives and efforts to develop, mentor and retain the very talented and hard working women of our firm.”

Neal Gerber Eisenberg was selected for the 2009 Best Law Firms for Women based on responses to an application developed in a partnership between Working Mother and Flex-Time Lawyers LLC. The application, limited to law firms with at least 50 lawyers, measured areas such as workforce profile, family-friendly benefits and policies, flexibility, leadership, compensation, advancement and retention of women. Furthermore, the application included detailed questions about the issues that are most important to the retention and promotion of female lawyers.

“The Women’s Network at Neal Gerber Eisenberg demonstrates in a palpable way how women can come together to effect positive change in their own professional pursuits, while at the same time advancing the business objectives of the firm,” said Jerry H. Biederman, managing partner of Neal Gerber Eisenberg. “We feel strongly that our attorneys working flexible schedules should have the option to pursue the same career path as those working traditional ones or we risk turning away some of our best talent. Our feeling has been verified over time as our flexible-schedule partners are among our most respected and valued, both inside and outside of the firm.”
